- note one The date of creation of the charge under which the receiver is acting should be entered. If appointed by High Court order, the date of the order should be entered.
- note two Form E9 covers six-month periods from the date of appointment. Any lesser period up to the date of cessation must also be covered by Form E9.
- note three This section must be completed by the person who is presenting Form E9 to the CRO. This may be either the applicant or a person on his/her behalf.
- note four In a case to which section 319 (2) of the Act applies, each entry must be so set out that it can be identified with the appropriate entry in the lists and schedules in Form No. 17 (E10).
- note five Where section 321 applies, the estimated value at the date on which possession was taken should be inserted.
- note six Where section 319 (2) of the Act applies, each entry under the heading of "payments" must be so set out that it can be identified with the appropriate entry in the lists in Form No. 17(E10). If a continuation sheet is used, the receipts and payments must severally be added up at the foot of each sheet and the totals carried forward from one summary to another without any intermediate balance, so that the gross totals shall represent the total amounts received and paid by the Receiver since the date of appointment.
- note seven This form must be certified by the receiver of the company or by each receiver, if more than one is appointed. Please tick the appropriate box.
- note eight If the company is not in liquidation at the date of cessation, a statement should be submitted to the Registrar of Companies attached to the final Form E9, stating whether in the opinion of the receiver, the company is solvent.
