

Established in 1985, Homefinders has become a leader in the letting and property management market in Cork, which they accredit to their focus on offering a professional service to both landlords and tenants alike. Homefinders recognises the need for a tailored service as no two properties and indeed no two people are alike. Homefinders is one of Cork's leading property management companies, it offers numerous services including; property management, letting, sales and also advice in the areas of investments and refurbishments. They have a first class team who pride themselves on their professionalism, efficiency and offering the highest quality service.

We have it all from houses to studios and apartments to commercial units.

So, whether you are a:

- Tenant looking for a new home...
- A landlord looking for new tenants, in need of property management or an investment opportunity...
- Or you are looking to buy

Contact Homefinders today and Our friendly staff will always assist you in your search...